I give my son/daughter _____ permission to tryout for the middle school basketball team. I understand that my child must have a current physical (which is attached) and must remain academically eligible (see student handbook for policy) to play on the team. If my child becomes a member of the school team, I agree to return the uniform or be responsible for the replacement cost of the uniform. I also understand there are inherent risks involved in playing this sport and injury could occur.
